TO THE HONOURABLE

THE COURT OF DIRECTORS

OF THE

EAST INDIA COMPANY.

OCT 2 5 1940

HONOURABLE SIRS,

Encouraged by the very kind patronage which your Honourable Court and the Officers of your Service have been pleased to bestow on our List of Officers of the Indian Army, we have anxiously continued our labours, and we now beg to present to you a List of another important Branch of your Army, viz., that of the Medical Officers who have been appointed to your Service in India, from the year 1764, to the present time, which List has been compiled with every possible care, and we trust will be found an interesting appendage to the Army List. We gladly avail ourselves of your Honourable Court's permission to dedicate this further work to your Honourable Court, and with every feeling of respect and gratitude,

We have the honour to be,

Honourable Sirs,

Your most obedient and Humble Servants,

DODWELL & MILES.

OFFICE OF GENERAL AGENCY.

———ooo———

MESSRS. DODWELL and MILES, 69, Cornhill, London (late of the Honourable East India Company's Service), General Agents to the Honourable East India Company's Civil and Military Servants.

This Office of General Agency having received the patronage of a very considerable proportion of the Honourable Company's Service at home and in India, induces Messrs. DODWELL and MILES, through the medium of this advertisement, to acquaint their friends in India and England that the Subscription of £1 per annum in England, or Rs. 12 in India, embraces the following advantages:

READING ROOMS

For the accommodation of the East India Company's Civil and Military Officers upon their arrival in England, where the Latest Intelligence from India may be obtained, Arrival and Departure of Ships, Names of Passengers arriving from or departing to India and the Colonies, with those expected; also an Alphabetical List of Officers from India, with date of arrival, and by what Ship, distinguishing whether on Sick Certificate, or Private Affairs, with Ship and Season of their returning to India; Annuity Funds, Civil Allowances, Off-Reckonings, and succession thereto; Military Pay and Pensions; Indian Loan Property; Casualties; Promotions to Staff Appointments, and Information upon all points connected with either Service on matters of Regulation. Correspondence conducted with the Court of Directors, in which the interests of the Company's Servants may be engaged; Forms of Application to the Court; Passages engaged to India and the Colonies free of charge to the parties, with detailed lists of necessary Outfit; Baggage shipped and cleared; Insurances effected; Letters registered and forwarded according to instructions received; Addresses of Company's Servants at home and abroad.

 Writers, Cadets, and Assistant Surgeons assisted through the forms of the Court.

———o———

REGIMENTAL MESSES, MISCELLANEOUS SUPPLIES, AND BOOK CLUBS.

Upon the above, it is the anxious wish of Messrs. DODWELL and MILES to afford to the Service every possible facility for the regular supply to the Regiments and Clubs in a manner consistent with the wants of the Service, as well as the necessary economy so desirable, and so long needed.

Upon all orders transmitted to them on this account, their Establishment will take especial care that the same be executed with as little delay as possible, that the Supplies are furnished by manufacturers of the first respectability, and that Invoices, with exact amount against each article, be forwarded to the Regiment or Club, from the trades-people; upon completion of the order, Messrs. DODWELL and MILES will forward their bill (with goods) upon the Mess Committee or Club, drawn at a certified rate of exchange for the day, which certificate of exchange will accompany the bill. Messrs. DODWELL and MILES's charge for the due execution of such orders is five per cent. commission, or two and half per cent., if accompanied with a remittance.

———o———

MESSRS. DODWELL & MILES hope that the above outline of their Establishment may meet with the approbation of their friends in India and England, they having but one desire, that of affording to the Service generally every assistance in their power.
